

Purchasing Intern Wanted

Antares Romania is member of an International group founded in 1992 with members in the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary, Serbia, Bulgaria and Tunisia. Since the very beginning, we grew at a steady and progressive pace, constantly adding knowledge, skills, production capacity and human resources, always striving to provide the best possible product and service to our customers.

Our company produces more than 1 million chairs and armchairs per year that we sell all over the world. We pay careful attention to every single detail of our products. We offer a wide range of chairs that satisfy different body shapes, job types and working environments.

What we are looking for: Purchasing assistant intern

We are looking for a young colleague eager to learn and develop his/her professional skills. We value the most the following aspects in our candidates for this position:

- Good communication skills (HU/RO/EN) in B2B environment.
- Ability to work efficiently in teams and in cooperation with other departments.
- Good analytical skills.
- Independent, proactive, responsible working style.
- Desire to learn and develop personally and professionally.

We offer:

- an opportunity to work in a young dynamic team
- possibility to develop your own expertise with experienced and enthusiastic colleagues.
- the benefit of a medium company combined with a solid customer base. In our company every employee affects the company's success.

Sounds like you?

Contact us and send your application letter and C.V. by latest 10.08.2017!
More information about Antares is available at: www.scaune.ro / www.szekek.ro

Contact Person:

Marius Serbănescu
e: marius@scaune.ro